

1/23/14

For our patients who prefer e-mail confirmations for upcoming appointments, we would like to make you aware that, at this time, our e-mails are not considered to be secure and confidential. We are in the process of updating this process. If you would still like to continue to receive e-mails for appointment confirmations, and such, please print, sign and date this letter.

Thank you.

---

Print name

---

Date

---

Signature